In 2025,

God taught us something beautiful.

● He showed us that intimacy with Him isn't necessarily found in grand gestures or perfect circumstances.

More often, it's discovered in the quiet moments, the daily rhythms, the shared struggles and celebrations of ordinary believers around the world.

As we look back, we're overwhelmed with gratitude—not just for what you've made possible through your partnership, but for how you've allowed us to grow alongside you.

In each step, we've been reminded of a wonderful truth: intimacy with God isn't a destination we reach alone, but a journey we share.

Scripture reminds us that the body of Christ “being fitted and held together by what every joint supplies, according to the proper working of each individual part, causes the growth of the body for the building up of itself in love” (Eph. 4:16). This year, you've been that vital part, helping strengthen the church around the world.

Dr. Stanley often reminded us that God's presence is most real in the ordinary moments of life. This year, you've invited us into some of those with you—through your prayers, your questions, your generous hearts, and your faithful partnership in the gospel.

Here's a glimpse of how God multiplied these moments into ministry this year.

in the quiet moments

● Life can become so hectic. Our best intentions for connecting with God can easily be compromised. All of us need a small boost to refocus our attention, or a challenge to go deeper still. We're pleased to see the impact these ready resources had in 2025.

“I'm committed, brother and sister.
Whatever it takes to get the gospel out there, we'll get it out there. I want you to have the same sense of commitment, not for my sake, but because I think we all agree the message is worth telling.”
—Dr. Charles Stanley, March 28, 1993

thank you, thank you, thank you.

For letting us into the sacred rhythm of your days. For trusting us to walk alongside you in those moments where God does His deepest work. For showing us what faithfulness looks like—not in grand gestures, but in the quiet discipline of showing up, day after day, to meet with Him.

The ripples of your devotion reach farther than you'll ever know in this lifetime. But God knows. "For God is not unjust so as to forget your work and the love which you have shown toward His name, in having ministered and in still ministering to the saints" (Heb. 6:10). He's using every prayer, every moment of surrender, every small step of obedience to write a story of redemption that extends far beyond our ability to see or understand.
